The King vs. John Asegut. Appeal from the Circuit Court of the 3d Judicial Circuit-Present, ALLEN, C. J., BARRIS and June, J.J.

Justice Hanns delivered the decision of the Court as follows:

The defendant, John Asegut, had been prosecuted in the District Court of North Kohala. Island of Hawaii, for the larceny of a cow claimed by one George Holmes to be his property, and being found guilty in the District Court, appealed to the Circuit of the Third Judicial Cir-

At the trial before a jury at the term of the said Court, holden at Waimea, Hawaii, in November, 1873, the Honorable Justice presiding. instructed the Jury :

That to take property openly under a claim of right was not larceny, but trespass only. That a felonious intent must be found to constitute the crime of larceny. That if the jury believed from the evidence that the defendant took the cow in question under a claim of right, they would find him not
